FAMILY PRACTICE 2009 UPDATE

Why you should attend and what you will learn . . .

In one comprehensive program you'll learn about all of the major developments in Maryland family law during the past twelve months. We'll also clue you in on some small developments that have changed family law practice in subtle, but important, ways. You'll get an invaluable update on case law, legislation and court rules. Your guides on this interesting and informative tour through family practice territory are Paul Reinstein, Bryan Renehan, Stacy LeBow Siegel, and Dorothy Lennig - veteran MICPEL faculty members and respected, experienced, highly effective lawyers, who have concentrated their practices in this area for many years.

We will provide you with an overview of every significant new development in family law, plus in-depth treatment of issues in several selected critical areas: grounds for divorce; alimony; marital property; and domestic violence protective orders. In addition to the great learning opportunity, you'll have time to network with colleagues and make new contacts among attendees who consider this highly regarded annual update to be a required component of their professional development plan as family law practitioners.

In the past 12 months, legislation and case law have altered the playing field for the family law practitioner. Our distinguished faculty will review these important developments and explore new issues in family law legislation and case law.

New case law, new legislation, new rules, plus analysis of court trends over the past few years, advice on advocating in the gray areas left unresolved by recent decisions, and lots of practical tips on avoiding procedural pitfalls – in short, everything you need to know to keep up-to-date in family practice – will be covered.

REFUND AND CANCELLATION POLICY

Telephone, fax and e-mail registrations, accompanied by a credit card authorization, and regular mail registrations, accompanied by a check or credit card authorization, will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. two (2) days before all regular full-day and half-day programs. MICPEL reserves the right to cancel or reschedule any program and will notify registrants at least 24 hours in advance of such cancellation or rescheduling. Full refunds, less $20 for administrative expense, will be made for cancellations received by 5:00 p.m. the day before regular full-day and half-day programs. If you register for regular full-day and half-day programs, but do not attend or cancel, you will receive the course materials following the program in full consideration of tuition paid.

MARYLAND DIVORCE AND SEPARATION LAW, 9th EDITION (2009)

Order & Pick up your copy at the program on August 18, 2009 or August 20, 2009 and save 25%

Maryland's most authoritative and widely read guide to divorce and separation law has been comprehensively updated and revised for the first time in over six years. The new 9th Edition of *Maryland Divorce and Separation Law will be available in just a few short weeks.

MICPEL is holding the line on low pricing in this difficult economy. We have kept the cover price of the new 2009 Edition the same as the cover price of the old 2003 (8th) Edition. There has been no price increase on this book in over six years!

But while there has been no change in the cover price, there have been a lot of changes in family law in Maryland in the last six years. In addition to updating the case law, rules, and statutes throughout the entire book, our outstanding group of experienced and knowledgeable contributing authors have updated the book's practical analysis and advice to respond to all of those important changes. There are new and revised forms. The chapter on tax aspects of divorce and separation has been extensively rewritten to cover all of the changes in the tax code, IRS rulings, and cases. The marital settlement agreements chapter has been thoroughly revised, and the Sample Marital Settlement Agreement has also been revised and updated. Additionally, there is a new discussion about the Kaufman Alimony Guidelines, the changes in administrative provisions for the establishment and enforcement of child support orders, and much more.
